

Investment Opportunity for Stock Photographer Entrepreneur

Here's a fantastic opportunity to become one of the 23 owners in BlendImages.com - one of the fastest growing, niche, pro-photographer, multi-cultural, stock agencies in the business today. Founded in 2004 by owner/photographers with revenues of 6.5 million in 2008. A 9-person staff, working out of Seattle, Las Vegas, Los Angeles, and San Diego. Over 75,000 tightly edited, ethnically diverse images. Managed by industry veterans. Represented by all major agencies. Plus a powerful distribution platform of it's own.

Jack Hollingsworth, one of the two concept originators for Blend, by selling his shares, is providing an investment opportunity for a stock photographer entrepreneur in an effort to raise capital for his aggressive new online enterprise. Hollingsworth is slowly, but strategically, stepping out from behind the camera to serve as a new media consultant, coach, & mentor to pro-photographers looking to redefine and reinvent their photo business and brand using new social media tools and technologies (see his recent MacTribe article here).

“I love Blend. Why wouldn't I? I helped start it. I was there from the beginning. It is one of the best niche pro-photographer agencies in the business today. And it's growing. Owners, management team and contributors are all a fantastic community of creative collaborators,” says Jack Hollingsworth. “I'm offering up my shares in Blend with mixed emotions. Truth is, I'm moving in a completely different career direction and looking to capitalize my new online enterprise. This is a dream opportunity for either a photographer or image producer to leverage Blend's powerful distribution channel. And join a growing network of top stock shooters.”
